“ Back in the day when my family moved to Bloomfield we discovered we weren't the only Gilmores in town. Being a small town we soon met Jim and John. Many people thought surely we must be related, we decided that was just fine with us.

“ Deepest sympathy to Grip and Tracy and the family. Jim taught my son Michael how to shoot a hook shot while playing basketball for the Cardinals. He was a great man and will be dearly missed by all.

“ My husband John, was the only brother to Jim. When John and I first met we went many times to Bloomfield to visit his brother, family, and many a baseball game. Many may not know but John and Jim both graduated from Indiana State Police school at IU. Jim was number one in his class.
Then he left the dept. and went to Holland. He loved his job and Linda worked there too.
Jim played men’s independent AAU basketball coached by John. We traveled to many cities and states. They LOVED their basketball more than anything.
I just always remembered Jim being very family oriented and LOVED his basketball.
I am certain Jim and John are already recruiting up in heaven. God Speed. Janet Gilmore Greulach
