“ Jonah, I've known you basically my entire life. We grew up together as siblings running around the firehouse together. You were Sammie's best friend growing up. Then you and two fell in love and gave the world the gift of Joeie Raine. I wish we had stayed in touch I wish I could have told you I was sorry. You will always be in my heart bubby. I promise to never let Joeie forget how much you loved her and will tell her all the stories of our childhood. I'm going to pull out all the photos of you and Sammie so Joeie can see how much her mommie and daddie loved each other. I love you bub! Watch over Joeie, keep her safe.

“ I can remember the first time I ever met Jonah. He and my sister Alicia brought his daughter down to play with my littles and so we could all hang out and have dinner. I love the fact that my sister got with someone like Jonah and was loved by Jonah, the way that he loved my sister. The several times we all hung out and got together it was never a dull moment. I will keep Joey, my sister and all of Jonah's family in my prayers. I hope his daughter grows up knowing how much her daddy truly loved her.

“ The 4th of July was always a big holiday! This past 4th was no exception. All you boys were letting off fireworks when the one went off on the ground. Jonah, dad, Daniel, and Wayne seem to be dancing in the shower of sparks! Alicia is lost without you. You were not only the love of her life, but a great addition to our family. You will be forever missed.
