

Joshua Mickel "Fishy" Fiscus

December 5, 1990 - March 17, 2016

Joshua Mickel "Fishy" Fiscus, 25, of Springville, passed away Thursday, March 17, 2016.

He was a loving son and brother. A dear friend and loved one who was dedicated to helping all he befriended. Loved and will be missed by many, forever in our hearts.

Surviving relatives include: his parents, Terry and Emma Prenzel of Springville; one sister, Samantha Prenzel of Springville; grandparents, Gary and Annie Pemberton of Bloomington and David Smith of Heltonville; many aunts, uncles and cousins both in Indiana and Illinois.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Becky Smith and grandparents, Franklin and Anna Prenzel.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. on Monday, March 21, 2016 at Jenkins Funeral Home in Bloomfield, with Rev. Ron Helderman officiating. Interment will follow in Edwards cemetery in rural Solsberry.

Public visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Monday at the funeral home.

The family asks that memorial contributions be made to any local church food pantry in Joshua's name.

Online condolences to the family are available at www.jenkinsfuneralhomes.com.

“ So many memories of a sweet lil boy Josh.
When we moved to Blue Skies Josh was the first of his family we met. He would come over to play and started bringing Sammi. Wasnt long and we knew Emma and Terry. At times their house was a second home to my kids.

The two memories that stand out the most.

1) When Josh and Joe was little they were at my house playing in the yard. They had been quiet for a bit so I went to check on them. They had gotten an ax out of the shed and cut downthe neighbors tree (sapling). They were so proud. The neighbor not so much.

2) This one isnt about Josh but I always think of him. He is the one that told me so i always remember his big eyes as he told me. Long story short. Joe was at his house and one of their dogs bit his hind end. Emma of course wanted to make sure he was ok. Joe was having none of that. He was fine. But Josh found it so funny. There is so many other memories. Me and Alan just saw him a few weeks ago. He was working but like always when he seen us he took a min to say hi and catch up.

I still just cant believe it.

Emma, Terry, and Sammi,

We are only a call away. We love u all and are hurting for u all. I wish u all peace.

“ Nothing but good times with this man. He was so happy all the time and knew how to make someone laugh. Even my boys liked seeing him. We would pull up somewhere and they'd see his car and say "fishy!"
