“ Karen always treated me like I was important. Even when I was a young snotty wild annoying little girl. But Karen loved & accepted me anyway and she let me know she loved me. She liked to talk to me, treat me like I was so important to her. I've always carried that was me through my childhood & throughout my whole life. I'd like to think that a lot of good in me is from Karen, as well as from Jesus. I've always tried to treat people the same way that Karen treated me. Especially little kids. The more bratty, loud, and annoying they are, the more determined I am to let them know that they have my attention and that they are so very precious & important. Thank you God for allowing Karen to be on this Earth the same time I was. I don't know if I'm crying because I'm sad she's leaving the Earth and how many people are going to miss her, or if I'm crying because I'm happy that she finally gets to be with Jesus. She's one of the lucky ones!

“ I am so sorry to hear of Karen's passing. I worked with Karen at RCA and we became friends. She made me some pretty maternity tops when I was expecting my son Brandon who is 44 years old now. Karen was so much fun always filled with laughter. I Haven't seen Karen for years but never forgot her. Rest in Peace Karen. Prayers for the family.

“ Besides Karen's enjoyment of sewing and reading, what stands out to me is her love of family. She related that when she couldn't detect why her few days old Marnie kept crying, that she herself cried and said, "I don't know what to do to make you happy." Apparently, she figured it out very quickly to raise such a loving and happy daughter and that extended to Jeff, Tori, and Travis. David, Brenda, Daniel, and Lyndal were blessed to be her siblings. She loved attending the family reunions because she loved her relatives so. She also enjoyed learning all she could about her ancestral heritage. I was honored when Karen called me a "sister cousin." She will be missed by us all, but the memories of her live on with us.
