“ I met Kathy while attending Vincennes University and she became a great friend and even a roommate our senior year. After graduating we saw each other only a few times, unfortunately, as we lived so far apart, once for her first marriage and then for mine as well. Even though we lost track of one another eventually, she will always be remembered as having a heart for the Lord, a kindhearted friend and having so much joy that when she laughed she could light up a room! My deepest condolences to her family.

“ Kathy was my Sunday friend, after church we would take long walks and talk of life. She was always concerned whether Jesus was present in other's lives. She is able to walk now, with her loved ones. Rest in the fact that she is with Jesus. She lived her convictions.

“ Kathy and I were candy strippers at the linton hospital together in high school and visited vincennes campus, she was so smart, funny, ambitious, dedicated, loving and a beautiful sister in Christ. We were blessed to have her in our presence recently at our class reunion. I'll miss her but thankful she's resting and in heaven with Jesus. My deepest sympathy to her loved ones.

“ Kathy and I were more like sisters than cousins. We played together, studied together, cried and laughed together, prayed and sang together, and so much more. We were best friends, and Kathy will always have a very special place in my heart. I will always remember her beautiful smile, her contagious laugh and giggles, and how very appreciative she was of even the smallest gift or act of kindness. Kathy was a wonderful Bible scholar, and her life was a testimony to her unwavering faith in God, I miss my dear friend and cousin already, but I am confident that she is at peace now. I'll see you later, Kathy ... Love, Eva Jean

“ Aunt Kathy was a wonderful lady. she always had a smile and loved to hear her laugh. She was good at keeping micah and Jon connected to the Buchanan Family by bringing them to family functions. and our family bragged about her doing that for us. She is an inspiration to everyone and It would be a better world if there were more people like her.
