“ My heart was so sad when I heard the news from Dolly that my dear teacher had passed away. Her kindness and skill as a strings instructor was one of the inspirations that led me to become a teacher. Our family's visit with Kathleen last summer is a memory we cherish yet today. I am so glad we re-connected. Our sympathy and love, Bob, Susi, and Jonathan Jones

“ Mrs. Bartlett called and told me about Kathleen passing. She was a wonderful teacher and mentor, and will be sorely missed by all of her former pupils. Bill Broderick and I kept communications with her all these year. She was our teacher at Gray Ridge High School in Missouri. Bill Broderick and I, Sam Goolsby send our condolences to Kathleen's family. Class of 1947.
