“ I worked in IU radiology for 19 years And I remember Larry well. He always had a smile, a laugh, most definitely a joke, and he was a friend to everyone. My heart goes out to Larry's family and to Michelle McClure and her family. This is a tragedy beyond all proportion. For all of us that knew Larry, it is heartbreaking. I no longer work in IU Radiology but I can say for sure that he will truly be missed. May God watch over all of you. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ I am proud to say that Larry was my best friend for a half-century .We played Little League Baseball together We went to school together We were in the National Guard's together .We played softball on numerous teams. We raised our kids together he was always there for me and at times when circumstances keep us apart we never grew apart and when we would get back together it was like we were never apart I'll never forget the trip to Arkansas and riding through the Ozarks just me and him the wind in our faces and the open road in front of us. We would go and whatever direction we felt like and end up wherever we landed.I I'm so glad that this year I attended several events with the club ,The Hog roast, the tri Club camp out Brains anniversary party, and several other weekends I spent with Joker and Shelley I was lucky to get to share those times with them. I was lucky to have a friend like Larry you only have one friend like that in lifetime I'll never have another friend like him. I will miss him terribly

“ I met Larry when he came to IU Radiology from IU Bloomington. The first time you meet him, you are his friend. His bubbly personality draws you in. I went through a lot of ups and downs in my life during the 20+ years I worked with him. He was always there to help me through it. I also would listen to him during his down times. I never missed a day talking with him (unless we were off) until I retired in December of 2016. I missed our daily conversations. I didn't get to talk with him much after that until he had his stroke. I talked to him once on phone after to check on him. I heard from him a couple of times after that in the last year. It was great that he was so happy these last 2 years. I will be praying and thinking of his family during this trying time. I'm so sorry for your loss of a wonderful father/grandpa/fiancé/brother/friend.

“ You’re My Brother

*Kindred spirits we were born on the 22nd day.
I am truly shattered that you have gone away.
Tears roll endless down my face
At the table is an empty place.
Our hearts have been deeply broken.
Heaven’s highway is wide open.
Your light will shine like the stars in space.
As you travel heaven’s highway and the true race.
You live on giving life to another.
You were never heavy.
You’re my Brother.*

“ I am proud to say he was my best friend. He was the best best friend you could have. I first met Larry playing Little League baseball. Therefore, I have known him for nearly 50 years. We were in the National Guard together. We went through boot camp together and graduated together. They made him a platoon leader in basic training because he was always a leader who people would follow. He convinced me to go back to school and that is what got me my job at Crane. We played softball together for years. There were times when circumstances kept us apart, but we never grew apart. He was always there when I needed him. We reconnected a couple of years ago and it was just like we never missed a beat. Right after he got his new bike I asked him to go to Arkansas riding through the Ozarks, just him and me. He said Let's go! I'll never forget it. It was a special memory I'll always cherish. He invited me to all the club events and I began going more and having more fun which was just what I needed. He was even trying to get me to join and you know how persuasive he could be. I told him after I got everything else settled I would make a decision. He said OK. He talked about Shelly and how he felt about her and he wanted to marry her. So when last Thursday he called me to ask if I would stand up with him next Saturday to marry Shelly, I said of course I will do it. That was the last time I talked to him. He was one of a kind, a dear friend, a brother who will always have your back, a father who loved his children and was very proud of them, a smile that was contagious, a Joker who could always make YOU laugh, the ONLY Joker in the deck. I will never forget the times I had riding with him. I will always miss him. You only get one friend like that in a lifetime. I was very lucky to have him.
