“ So glad that my sister Debbie Shields and I (Alesa Shields Carr) were able to come to pay our respects for Larry Martindale. He was such a kind person. Larry always was able to help my sisters and I with anything of the Cemetery. He had a Big Heart! Willing to help in any way. Larry certainly earned His Angel Wings. Lord, look after his wife and family. He will be greatly missed! Our Grandparents were Wallace (Wally) and Mabel Sullivan.

“ A few years ago, I met Larry at the Greene County Chapel Cemetery. We discovered that we were related through our grandparents (Lettie Breeden Sparks and Marion Breeden). Larry was so welcoming and invited my wife and I over to see his mother Mildred at her home. What a treat it was to spend several hours with them? Although it was only a short visit, we shared a lot of laughs and family stories. We will always remember Larry's kindness and personality. Thoughts and prayers to Marsha and the entire Martindale family!

“ Larry was one of the most likable, helpful and generous people I had the pleasure of talking to on numerous occasions. As one of the cemetery trustees, he was kind and receptive to answer my questions and always went above and beyond. In many of our conversations, we reminisced about my grandparents Wally and Mabel Sullivan. I know that God granted Larry angel wings because Larry shared Gods love in all he did for the chapel and cemetery. My heart and deep sympathies and prayers go out to his family.

“ Larry was always so faithful to be present during “Decoration Day” greeting all visitors as they tended their loved ones grave. He was truly dedicated to making sure the Cemetery was manicured and well kept by the caregivers. His knowledge of the Cemetery plots and all other business will be sorely missed. His smile and greeting was contagious. RIP
