“ Her famous line to me and Aunt Clara Mae “ you never know what kind of trouble we will get into” still rings in my ear. It is true, we did find some situations and loved it all. I would hear about it after she returned from trips to Tennessee as i cared for her critters carrying a truck load of things she just had to have. The family will miss her famous fudge only she could make as they counted on seeing it at every family get together. Stories of how she used to brush my hair as a kid, learning to roller skate with her and mom and oh so many other memories too many to list. You will be missed.
