“ Janice, sorry for your loss. I tried to call you guys awhile back but didn't have the right number. I remember the good times working with Max in HX on the depot and talking with him when you guys went shopping in Bloomfield. Where has the time gone.

“ Janice and family, may God comfort you at this difficult time. Max loved you all very much. Aging is difficult and is sad to watch a loved one change n mind and n body. But, how wonderful that God will give His children a new perfect body. My sympathy is with all of you. May good memories bring laughter to you each as you recall the many great times together. 🙏🙏🙏

With Love,
