“ Marjorie,

I am so sorry for your loss. Lavon was smiling when I would see him and was very friendly. Please take care of yourself. I will be praying for you.

“ Levon was a mentor to many of the younger rural carriers, including myself, and his wisdom and knowledge was always welcome. Levon served honorable and faithfully to his God and his country. Levon is in the hands of our Heavenly Father, and God giveth his beloved sleep.

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of thy servant Levon Jeffers, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, on God, now and forever. Amen.

“ He was a gentle soul, a sweet husband and father. On my visits, Marjorie, Levon and I shared long delicious dinners at their table. When I tried to help, he joked about Margie liking things done a certain way, so its best to let her do it. We watched baseball games together. Usually he was first up and made coffee for me. Over breakfast he read the Herald Times and brought me up to date on Bloomington affairs. (I haven't lived there since the 70s. My heart goes out to my dear cousin Marjorie, who cared for him nonstop. Their long family history is precious and he will be deeply missed.
