“ Always loved "Aunt Linda". The first time I met her I was probably 6 years old. I thought she was so pretty! She had on a letter jacket. Uncle Rick had brought her over to meet our family. At the time we were visiting from Illinois. We were in Newberry at Grandmas house. May she rest in peace. Prayers are going out for all of her family.

“ Nana Linda, we all love you and will miss you. Every memory I have of you is of your high energy, fun and laughter. I wish you could have met my husband and children....even though they feel as if they knew you anyway!

Love to all the family,
