“ My thoughts and prayers go out to your entire family. I was sharing with Janet earlier today that one of the few memories I have before starting school was venturing across the railroad when you lived across from the old King School location and coming to your house. I can still remember my Mom saying "wait until your Dad gets home," but that day I knew Lorraine was a great aunt. I also remember coming around when you were building your basement when the house is now in 1968. A generation is fully passed now, but memories last for a lifetime. Blessings to you and sorry that I was unable to make the trip this weekend. Lonnie Vandeventer
