“ *My grandpa was one of the greatest kindest men I ever knew. To lose him was to lose a part of myself. I think about him everyday and miss him more than one can imagine, but i know he is in heaven where he belongs. My grandfather was a man of faith, hardworking, loved his family, loyal, and so kind with the same expectations of others as he had for himself, he probably had even hire expectations of himself to be honest. He loved animals, took pride in his work and was his wife's best friend, and a great leader. I love you Grandpa,
Love your granddaughter Erica*
