“ JR was always kind and courteous to us. I remember he was excited when he bought the first house from us. Prayers for Kim and family. May God give you peace and comfort. God doesn't make it clear to us the "whys" but I know he is in control and will reveal to us his perfect master plan in his timing, until then we must maintain faith and trust his will for our lives. Although it is so hard take comfort in knowing that JR will never suffer again and has been reunited with special ppl who have already gone to heaven ☐
