Lucy lived in a time that taught the importance of family. No matter what, you had each other. She knew and taught her children to work hard, care for each other, love, help, listen, and forgive. She was spunky, and was known to speak her mind. She loved her family, and showed repeatedly that she would do anything for them. Until it became too difficult, there was not a game that she would miss whether in the heat of the day or an all-nighter softball tournament. She ran the roads constantly to visit or lend a helping hand to family members all over. Bingo was her favorite thing, and she always had a story of a near miss.

Lucy lived, worked, and raised her family in Campbellsburg, IN. She worked for BF Goodrich for over 25 years, and later retired from Greene County General. She has lived the last 30 years in Bloomfield, IN.

“ Aunt Lucy will be greatly missed, anyone who knew her was blessed. She loved deeply and loved all of us. She knew our birthdays which was amazing cause there are a bunch of us. She always was laughing with a story to tell. We all loved her and will miss her. Frank and Pearl Drake

“ Not enough room to write all that she has done for others. A memory of so many that stand out is when I was in labor with my youngest son she was right there beside me in the hospital rubbing my back that hurt so much during the labor process. Then another later in years she and husband Bill stopped by our house as they were passing thru Campbellsburg and I mentioned I was going with Claude to a trap shoot I think in Commiskey and that Claude had told me that they play BINGO in the building by the trapshoot so that is what I planned to do. Lucy of course the Bingo player she was asked me if I had my dobbers etc for the bingo. I said "no, I didn't know I needed them" and she got out of the car and opened their trunk and there were 4 or five little bags with different color dobbers in them and she pulled one out and said " here, you will need on of these". So off I went that night as if I knew what I was doing!! Thanks to Aunt Lucy. She was always there if anyone was in the hospital or ill. Always at our adult softball games that several of her nieces and nephews along with her children played on several years ago. One special lady in our family. Will miss her dearly. I love you Lucy.
