

Mable H. Stone

May 16, 1918 - June 27, 2014

Mable H. Stone, 96, of Bloomfield passed away Friday June 27, 2014.

She was born on May 16, 1918 in Bickelton, Washington the daughter of Lee and Nelle (Carroll) Hains.

Mable was a life long resident of Greene County, but had resided at Parkview Christian Care Assisted Living for the last four years. Mable and John Thomas Stone were united in marriage August 9, 1941 and this union lasted 64 years before John passed away on May 4, 2005.

Family was her #1 priority. Researching family genealogy was a favorite pastime. Her happiest times were spent working on the family farm beside John.

Mable is survived by her two daughters and their husbands, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Friends may call from 12 noon Monday June 30, 2014 until the hour of service at Jenkins Funeral Home in Bloomfield. Services will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Monday at Jenkins Funeral Home in Bloomfield with Rev. Arlen Pope officiating. Burial will follow at Scotland Cemetery. The family wishes any donations be made to the Scotland Cemetery in Mable's name.

Online condolences to the family can be made at www.jenkinsfuneralhomes.com

“ Judy and Sue and families, so sorry to hear of Mable's passing. I remember she and your dad were quality people and I know my folks were very fond of them, as well. May God bless you and comfort you in this sorrowful time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
