

Malori M. Jerrells

February 24, 1987 - August 12, 2015

Malori M. Jerrells, 28, of Martinsville passed away suddenly Wednesday August 12, 2015 at IU Health Bloomington Hospital.

Born February 24, 1987 in Akron, Ohio the daughter of John M. and Mary B. (Edwards) Mietus.

Malori had worked at Dairy Queen in Bloomfield and was working at Walmart in Jewelry and Shoes. She had recently graduated with a Bachelors of Science in Mechanical Engineering.

Mali loved her family very much especially, her ten month old daughter Marissa. Malori is survived by her husband, Caleb M. Jerrells of Martinsville, her daughter Marissa at home, her parents John and Mary Mietus, two brothers, Chris and Sean Mietus all of Bloomfield; her mother-in-law, Rita Bruner (Melvin) of Bloomfield and father-in-law, Mike Jerrells (Rosemary) of New Harmony.

In lieu of public visitation, a Celebration of Life will be held at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 29, 2015 at Faith Christian Church in Bloomfield, with Rev. Tim Underwood officiating. A dinner will follow to offer family and friends a time for sharing and fellowship.

The family has established a College Fund, in care of Caleb M. Jerrells, for Malori's baby (Marissa).

“ My dear sweet Malori, I love and miss you so much. I knew how much you loved your family, especially your husband, Caleb and your beautiful daughter, Marissa. We will make sure Marissa knows her mommy and how much you love her. Thank you for bringing so much love into Caleb's life. He loves you so much. Life is not fair and it wasn't suppose to be this way. I know you are looking down on all of us. Your presence will always be around us. We will, along with all our families as one big family, will be there for Caleb and Marissa and each other. We all love you!!!! May God always have his loving arms around you until we all meet again in a glorious place. RIP my dear Malori. Love always, Rosemary💜💙💛
