“ To all the family, but especially classmate Jennifer:

I remember the wonderful days growing up on Seminary Street and your family. Later I knew your mother as an adult. She was a very fine person and was always good to me.

As our 20th Class Reunion Slogan said: "Let the memories be happy ones."

Please know that all of you will be in my prayers now and in the days to come. May God be your comfort now and then.

She was my great aunt and though I did not see her much, as a child, I remember thinking how beautiful and elegant was, when she was at a family function. What I do know is she raised some kind and respectful children with good hearts.
