“ Teresa,
My deepest sympathy to you and the entire family. I was blessed to work with Mark, directly and indirectly, for over 13 years. Not only was he a brother veteran, but a friend in life. What an amazing man who encapsulated the daily values each of us strive to achieve. His finest was loyalty. Loyalty to family, friends, work; but mostly his love to you. Mark was always there for everyone he came in contact each day and always there to step forward to assist anyone in need of assistance. A man who always brought that contagious smile to work – rain or shine. I will miss you Mark. “God Bless”

“ Teresa:
Oh my gosh, Maureen and I had no clue when we said hello on Saturday. Only knew Mark from work and then in recent years socially. My sincerest condolences to all and to you most of all, what a sadness. I will greatly miss his friendly manner. Both of our prayers are with you and his family. Anything we might be able to do for you, let me know.
