“Martha Philipps was a woman of gumption, devotion, intelligence, and enthusiasm. She was always so welcoming at dear Harlan and Wanda's long ago, at Mineral Methodist and American Legion gatherings over the years, and at Pat's and her Vertical Acres. Even in our phone chats, Martha gave this merely distant cousin fond memories of her warmth and wit. To borrow from the poet P. B. Shelley, "What sweet thoughts are thine: As from thy presence showers a rain of melody. Hail to thee, blithe spirit!"
