“ What a fun and sweet lady. From leading the singing at church to breaking her arm roller skating to teaching the women of the church how to make pie crust, she was always busy. So sorry for your loss.

“ Aunt Martha was Aunt Martha until I worked with her at Farmers & Mechanics during my Senior year. What an eye opening experience! I felt as if I really got to know her. After they decided the cash drawer wasn't the best place for me, they had me help Aunt Martha with the loans. She made me her “legs” as she put it and sent me to the courthouse all the time. And then she had to bring in a picture of her and Uncle Leo proving to me that she was gray not blonde as she had red hair when she was younger. And I still remember her sage fashion advice: wear elastic waist pants as they give you a flatter look. She was a gem!
