“Mary and Marvin took me in in 1973 for the remainder of my school year because my mom moved up north to the school that I did not know a single soul. My dearest friend Lori asked if I could move in and of course, mama Mary said yes, and Marvin said well.hmmm.. lol! But he was fine with us after it happened!
I loved them both so very much even though through the years I didn't get to have as much contact as I sure wished I would've. Telephone calls seemed to go farther and farther apart. The last time that I saw Marvin and Mary was when Lori's daughter was married and we had a grand time. Of course Marvin always liked to cut a rug! And that night was no different and we sure had some good dances! Those were some good memories.
To Shelly and Lori, I love you both so much and you were the sisters that I didn't get to have but I will always have you in my heart
