PS

“ We were sorry to learn of the loss of your loved one. He was a great neighbor to our daughter and her family. We got to know Marvin when Bill was finishing the house after the death of our son-in-law. I believe that at least one time Marvin overheard Bill's "frustration" while trying to hold a huge piece of fieldstone and mortar it in. At that time Marvin came and offered to help him hold the stone in place, Bill so appreciated it that he still mentions it sometimes to a friend. Our granddaughters spoke often of Marvin and Nancy. I know they loved being spoiled by treats given them. In recent years we always looked forward to seeing Marvin at the Steam Show-either at a ticket booth or driving the tractor with the wagon load of people. He always had a friendly smile and wave-always the same. We wish to extend our sincere condolences to the entire family and pray that God will bless each of you with more memories than sadness. “ We knew Marvin at the Antique Show and what a smile he put on everyone's face with his smile back at em. He will be truly missed, he was such a joy to see each year and he did a really good job driving the shuttles around the grounds. Thank the Good Lord for people like Marvin that has been put on this earth to brighten our lives.
