“ Mary was a kind soul. Our favorite memory of Mary was a Christmas gathering. She was so excited to share the spirit of giving and had put together fun activities for everyone. The joy she felt was evident on her face and in her warm welcome. Our thoughts and prayers are with Roger and all the children and grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

“ I am Mary's Cousin on her Dad's side of family the Haywood's, I got to know Mary when she would come to the family reunions at time. I am sorry I didn't stay chatting and up to date on her. Mary was a very kind loving woman I am sure she is going and is already being missed. May God give to all of Mary's family the peace of knowing they will see her again one day. May God keep you all
