One of my best Scotland friends. We spent so much time together, riding bikes, exploring all the things to do in that tiny town. Later, as young teenagers, our interests expanded about a mile down the road that led to a whole set of new adventures. I am so glad I got to speak with Linda at our reunion in 2022. I am sorry that she had to deal with the health issues. It meant a lot to me that we could reminisce about our fun days.

My sympathies to the family.
