“ My name is Ed Coonce. My sister Juanita and I were foster children in the mid 1950s with the Campbells, Mildred, Stanley, and son Ronald. I attended Pike when all 12 grades were in the same school. I loved them very much, and felt so badly when at age 10 the state sent us to another home. We loved the farm, the horse, the cows, the sheep, the chickens, the orchard. The encouragement I got from this wonderful family I have never forgotten. I wish I could have met the rest of you. I'm a writer, actor, theatre director, artist, and set designer, living in Encinitas, CA. with wife Lucy and 2 cats. Attached is a picture of me and Juanita with Ronald and his mom. I guess Stanley was taking the picture. If anyone wants to get in touch to help fill out the history, ed.coonce@yahoo.com
