“ *Laura, I wanted to offer you sympathy for your loss from the family of Maynard and Grace Dowden. We appreciated your beautiful singing at their funerals. All 3 of us kids had your grandmother as a teacher in elementary school and your grandfather as principal in high school. Both of them were nice, upstanding, Christian people.
You have suffered such great trials and tribulations in your young life; more than anyone your age should have to. It's great to know that, being a Christian, you have someone to comfort you in your times of need. It's not easy going through something like this, but you can rely on God to give you the strength you need to get through it. Christ is our example of how to deal with suffering. Look to Him in these trying times. God bless you.
