“ Nancy was one in a million. She had a heart of gold. She never met a stranger. She was my best friend for almost 50 years. There is a huge hole in my heart with her passing. Our family had lots of wonderful memories with the Hackers over the years. Rest in peace my dear friend. You will be missed.

“ Roger, Courtney, and Chad, I am deeply saddened by the loss of Nancy, as her passing also impacts me. Losing her is like losing my own sister. I'll never forget what I witnessed Roger and Nancy meet at RCA. All Roger could think about was Nancy. They were a match made in Heaven.

“ I will so miss hearing Nancy's "Hey, Woman" greeting . . . that was how she always addressed me whether over the phone or in person. Most fun memories: houseboat trip to Dale Hollow and chaperoning cheerleaders along with Nancy to cheer camp one summer. Too many wonderful memories to begin to share them all. Love and condolences to the family. Nancy Clensy
