She attended Indiana Business School and worked for Purdue University in the library department while her husband attended Purdue. “ I spent many wonderful times with Nancy and her parents when we were both growing up. Nancy was a Solsberry girl through and through, and during the painful split of our schools, she was one whose parents arranged for her to continue at Solsberry instead of moving to Bloomfield.
She was a sweet, gentle friend. My condolences to her family.

“ Dear Don & Family,
My heart goes out to all of you as I know this must be to say the least a trying time in your lives. Please know that you're all in my thoughts and prayers. Unfortunately, God's ways aren't always our ways therefore we don't always understand why things have to happen a certain way, but I know God will work it together for good - somehow, someday as only He can (Romans 8:28). My prayer in the coming days is that someone will come to know Christ as a result of Nancy's passing. My heart is broken for all of you as it is never easy to let someone we love go, but thankfully, as christians we have hope - our hope is in Christ - and we will see Nancy again. It's not "good-bye" it's just "so long". And, oh what a family reunion in Heaven it will one day be!
