“ I write to offer my deepest condolences to the family. I was so very sorry to hear of the loss of Nathan. I'm a good friend Nathan's brother, Rob. Rob is one of the smartest, funniest and most insightful people I've ever met and this tragic loss seems to unfair to him and for the family.

My deepest condolences to Nathan's daughter, Madeline Belle Clark, to Mr. Robert Clark, Mrs. Joyce Clark and to all of Nathan's family and friends.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Sheehan Brooklyn, NY

“ What do you say to someone that has just lost a child? I really don't know, but I'll tell you what's in my heart. I wish I had known Nathan and been in closer contact with you. I pray that the Lord will draw you nearer to him for comfort and strength. May you find peace in your heart and life so you can provide guidance and love to your granddaughter. I am praying for all of you.

“ The Apostle Paul certainly knew sufferings (2 Corinthians 4:7-11, 16-18; 2 Corinthians 11:23-28; Hebrews 11:32-40). And he regarded them as opportunities. There are many reasons why we face trials. Here are just a few:

To glorify God (Daniel 3:16-18, 24-25) Discipline for known sin (Hebrews 12:5-11; James 4:17; Romans 14:23; 1 John 1:9) To prevent us from falling into sin (1 Peter 4:1-2) To keep us from pride. Paul was kept from pride by his "thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7-10) To build faith (1 Peter 1:6-7) To cause growth (Romans 5:3-5) To teach obedience and discipline (Acts 9:15-16; Philippians 4:11-13) To equip us to comfort others (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) To prove the reality of Christ in us (2 Corinthians 4:7-11) For testimony to the angels (Job 1:8; Ephesians 3:8-11; 1 Peter 1:12)
