Tribute Wall

PS

“ For all that loved Norma, sorry to hear of the loss of your love one. She was a sweet caring person and I know she must have struggled as she became Fred's caretaker the past few years. They were our neighbors and I watched them due to health reasons disrupt their lives and move. She was thankful for the ones that helped them. I believe she drew strength from the God she served and surely He is saying "we" done". I still miss sometimes seeing her at her mailbox or in the spring in the edge of the woods looking for mushrooms! I pray as she would have, for God's comfort to be with each of you.
Sincerely, Pat Sharr
