“ Although I didn't personally know Dewey, I had heard a lot about him through aaron and Erica. My granddaughter Brooklyn June Norris is Dewey's great-granddaughter and I am sure she will learn all about her great-grandpa as she grows older. Aaron, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know you were close to your papaw. Cherish those memories and pass them on to Miss Brookie Bee. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Tina Blythe

I first became acquainted with Dewey in 1966 when I worked at 'Hi-Ex' at Crane - he drove a semi. Then again with he and Esther at the bank in 1976. Always enjoyed working with them over the many years and as one might expect, always a lengthy conversation. Great people that loved their family....
