“ I met Patty and her family back when they were kids. We went to school together all the way thru high-school. Patty and Mike were my neighbors in Heatherwood for a few years. Used to go over and hang out with her sitting on the front porch reminiscing about our younger years. My heart breakds for Mike and her brothers. She will definitely be missed. My thoughts and prayers going out tonthe family. RIP Patty you are no longer in pain and suffering. Until we meet again fly high sweet angel. Love you!!!
