“ When Warren lived in Tampa he came to a church over in the Safety Harbor area and we all ended up in a small group that had started. It was being held in various people's homes. There were about 10 of us that showed up that day. And would you know that eight of us all were from Indiana? It's like the Lord knew who to put together and we all became friends and still are friends. Some have passed on and sadly Warren is one of them. But we know that part of our small group is in heaven now celebrating so it's it's sad to say goodbye, but we know that we're going to see them again. Warren was a wonderful man. He helped a lot of people and was funny. He always gave us a good laugh. Now may he rest in peace as he is there with all the saints in heaven

“ My husband Al and I went to Walnut Grove Cemetery in May to clean up around our brother-in-law's recent grave, Warren helped us figure out what to do with the dead flowers, etc. The Spirit of our Lord and Savior shone through his kindness. Heaven has received a true saint. Al & Joyce (Hasler) Long
