“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dad. I have not seen him for years but remember him well when I was younger and worked with him awhile at Crane. I have a previous commitment on Friday so I'm unable to come to the funeral home. I wish you all well.

“ Perry has always been a hero of my youth. A special man. I am sure that is true for a lot of other young men that he coached and mentored in Crane village. I am reminded that he and my father were bird hunting the day Kennedy was shot. My thoughts are with you
