“ We sure had a lot of good times when I owned Granny's General Store and Pete had the station at the top of the hill. I think we must have pranked each other everyday. I tied blown up condoms to the passenger side of his orange truck and laughed when he drove through town with them blowing in the wind , but the next day my door handles to my truck were greased. He will be missed. My heart goes out to the family.

“ *To Daddy, (My Man),
I write to you overwhelmed with joy that you were my man, my daddy, my biggest fan, my everything! What a bond we had since the day we met. Crazy mad love, only a daughter and father could have. It lifted our spirits, grew great memories and made us tell each other, how much we loved one another, all the time. And the joy it was for you to be my man and me to be your daughter, a true daddy's girl! I told you all my life, I loved you from the bottom of my heart, insanely, knew you like no other. It was the blood shed by the Lord Jesus Christ that we forgave each of the past to experience such a beautiful journey, called life! Now we understand God, soaring like free birds! Thank you daddy for that ah-ha moment of your peace that came over with your passing, telling me, everything will be ok. This is not good bye my man, until we meet again. Although my heart is hurting and missing you terribly, like so many of us. Love you to the moon and stars my man!
Love Always,
Your Aliea*

Dad as I sit here and think of you. I think of your smile and how I will miss calling you every week. I love you so much. I know you are in heaven with "J.C. " as we discussed in the last few weeks. (for those of you like me, who did not know who that is, until Dad informed me as he looked at me like I was crazy for not knowing "it's Jesus Christ". Everyone knows Dad's look that you get, lol! I told you that you would have a new body and be running around with Larry and for some unknown reason, wanted to go see John Wayne too. I was looking at our pictures and I see our eyes and our hair color. I know I am rambling, but what is a daughter to do. This is not good-bye, but I will see you again in Heaven one day. All my love always!
