“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ I became acquainted with Phyllis because of the family connection. She was a very nice person and I enjoyed talking to her. My husband was Morris and his mother, Mildred, was a Brandon. Mildred lived with John and Alice until she was 10 years old.

“ Dear Margaret, I am sorry to hear of your Mother's recent death. I remember when you and my mother worked together at the elementary school. I would often hear you speak so kindly of your mother when I would be with my mother. I know you miss her. May The Lord comfort you and your family. God bless you. Debbie Luther
