“ I was just in Bloomington and was very saddened to hear of Quincy's passing. He delivered gravel for my dad and me, and we both thought he was an unusually humble and kind person. I had several wide-ranging phone conversations with him -- he impressed me so much as an open-minded and thoughtful person. My condolences to his brother and the whole family. He will be missed.

“ It is with sorrow I received the news-on December 17, of the death of Quincy.
He was a great man, and I am proud to call him a friend.
Matthew Chapter 5- (Jesus to the crowd) “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.”
If you believe, and you get there before me, tell Quincy we're thinking of him, and he is sorely missed.

“ Beth and Larry Jackson.. I've known Quincy my whole life. Went to school with Billy. Quincy was a good friend who would of given his shirt off of his back. We will definitely miss him and his conversations. He was a great mechanic and a hard worker at that.

“ I’ve known the May family for over three decades. The first person I met from the family was Quincy. My wife and I were fishing an old farm pond and my truck would not start so my wife and I walked over a couple miles to the Mays house and Quincy was there. He drove us back to my truck and not surprisingly he got it started. Ever since then, he and his family have been dear friends and good country folk. I’ll miss him.
