“ My heart aches that Ralph had to leave us. Ralph was layed back and easy going. He reminded me so much of his Dad that is in uncle Don's later years ☺ whom I also loved and miss. Ralph was very caring and strong as an Ox. I always enjoyed being around him, although he didn't always enjoy my company as much 😊. I did see him mad a couple of times when we were young , one time I was tormenting him and he charged me. Now I was not a runner I would stand and fight, but when I seen the look on his face it was about the same feeling as being charged at by a Mad Bull. I took flight ! LOL but he was quick to get over it. I always made sure to have an escape route when teasing him after that and that was the only time he ever really got mad at me. The time I remember most about how much he cared, Donnie and Joe dancing along the edge of the train trestle over 150 ft in the air. Ralph was so scared for them he sit down and was clinching on to the track. The last time I seen him , one of things he talked about was how he liked the old 60's and 70's Impala's. He was a good apple

“ Ralph called me on my 60th birthday to wish me Happy Birthday. He said, "Sis, just remember how many people would have loved to see 60". I knew he thought he would never see it for the doctor's were calling him a walking dead man but God gave him his wish to see 60 plus another year. He was the sweetest, most caring brother and giving brother one could hope for. He will so missed by me. It was an honor to be his sister... Teresa Benassi
