“ We were saddened to learn of Mr Carpenter’s passing. We were his neighbors in Newark when he lived here and we enjoyed visiting with him. He shared peaches, plums and blackberries with us and entertained us with his humorous stories. “Red” was a good neighbor. May he rest in peace.

“ Sorry to hear of Dick's death. I have good memories of spending time with Clita at the Harrah's farm when I was a young girl. She had a white rabbit and named it Kathy. What a nice family. Sending prayers for comfort to family members.
