“ My brother-in-law was always there for his family. He was fun but sincere. He loved God. He was a hard working man, a truck driver at Hanna's all his adult life. Richard liked having nice vehicles and keeping them spotless. These last few years he surprised us by becoming a motorcyclist. So although he was a Buick man, he was a Harley man!

I cannot count the times he and Darlene were there for me when my first husband passed away. They were my rock! I have learned he was helpful with a lot of people. He truly was Christ-like. We are going to miss him, always. But hope to see him again one day.

Love, Arlene
