“ Nancy, your mom was my mom in my mind for many years. I'm sure looking back she thought, "Marilea is here, again?" I just couldn't help myself, haha! She kept me fed—best beef and noodles, Mac and cheese, and tuna salad ever, and helped me feel secure. I have strong memories of her enjoying her potato chip snack at night, sitting in her chair, plus dragging us out of bed to go to church. Much love to you and your family. You are so blessed to know your parents were Godly, loving and now in heaven. I loved them both so much. ”

They both loved you as a daughter! Such wonderful memories of the times we had. I will cherish this tribute and the beautiful lily. Love you!
