“ Bob will be missed by many, to include me. I knew Bob from when I was a little kid since Bob was friends with my Uncle Gilbert. Years later Bob spent many evenings with guys of my class after we came in from dates and gathered at "Dirty Clyde's" to play pool and just goof around.

Whenever I visited the Lyons Nursing Home, the best part was always spending some time with Bob. So as not to ramble on, I'll just say again - Bob will be missed by many. A GREAT GUY!

“ Andy Denny, I am a cousin my grandfather was Janice's brother. I knew Her, Bill and Mark, who I was named after. As I kid I knew Robert or Bob, but as time goes and I joined the AF & made it a career, contact grew less. I hope you are well and your mother. I knew her and her family in Linton. I am currently overseas as a contractor, otherwise I would be there. Please take care and hope to meet sometime. Thoughts & Prayers, Mark

“ I was married to Roberts cousin, DeeAnn (Grounds). My Prayers go out to Robert's Family. The few times I met Bobby, he was always glad to see us and him and DeeAnn would share some life stories. I could tell he really enjoyed that. May God Bless You Bobby.
