“ I started out as his contractor and ended up his friend. Everytime I showed up, he lit up and made me feel welcomed. I knew he wasn't feeling the greatest but he didn't let it show. I will always remember my friend Roger.

“ First of all my condolences to the family. Roger and I spent time over the years , hunting and fishing , he would set on a river bank all day fishing , he loved it so much. We would rabbit and squirrel hunt , mushroom hunt and ginseng hunt. He was in his element. He liked riding motorcycles and taking his car “old Henry “ to car shows and parades. I worked for him and his brother Darrel in a service station , they were a couple great guys to work for. I know he loved Jesus and is in a much better place now. This isn't good bye, just until later.
