“ I've known Roger for many years. We used to work in the same division at NSW Crane, but more recently we'd bump into each other at the gym. I hadn't seen him in a couple weeks and was absolutely floored to find out he passed. He was strong...looking good. I just introduced him to my son who's working in the Small Arms division, told him what an inspiration Roger is. I only found out an hour ago at the gym. All I can say is cancer may have killed Roger, but it certainly didn't beat him. I will miss seeing him at the gym, but he will always be an inspiration to me.
