“ Regina,
Sorry to hear of your mother's passing! I have great memories of being out at your farm especially this time of year and your mother always had something good for us to eat, like crisp apples, cider, and candy. She even supervised your piercing my ears, which have still never been infected:) My mother died Oct. 8, 2012, and I think of her almost every day, usually with a smile. We were blessed to have happy childhoods with great families.
