“Most people who visit this site probably never met my mother. We moved her away from Bloomfield after my father died. For those who never met her: My parents had 8 biological children, that said, if you were a stray, or far from family, my parents adopted you and folded you into the family— the more the merrier. I never knew my father to not pick up a hitchhiker even after being robbed at knife point in the 50’s. If you were away from your own family at the holiday you were invited to join our family gatherings so you were not alone. My mother took you in as if you were one of her own. And she raised us in a way that her love for us was never diminished by adding another sole into our family circle. She served in the ladies auxiliary at our church from the time we moved to Bloomfield in the early 70’s. Sadly a good number of her church friends passed before her—that’s what happens when your 98 years old. In her last years her thoughts were constantly on mothering. I was truly blessed to have her not only as a mother but as a best friend. I will missed her to the depth of my dole

So sorry for your loss. We live in the Woolen Mill across the street from your parents house. Just saw the car was gone. My wife and I are still interested in restoring your parents home. 812-327-8118
