“ Ruth and Kenny were our neighbors in Bloomington from 1993-1996 when we moved in next door as newlyweds. We gave them blackberries, they gave us peaches and vegetables and fresh fish--and we shared many stories and laughs across the fence and on the porch! When we moved to Long Island in 1996, Kenny and Ruth came to visit us and we had wonderful adventures--riding the subway, going to Teddy Roosevelt's house, riding the Staten Island ferryWe moved back to IN in 2000 and went to work for Purdue--and we never heard the end of our betrayal to IU! Through the years, we always kept in touch and visited when we could. They were not only neighbors, they were dear friends--and we miss them both very much.

“ I used to wait at their house for them to get home from work. My grandmother was neighbors with Ruth and Kenny. I thought of them as extended grandparents. Ruth would always dice something to eat and Kenny and I spent a lot of time with his Mr. Peanut collection. Of course, I bugged them to let me swim anytime I could. They used to say I was a good screamer. I have many wonderful memories of them. Shawn McArtor-Meadows

“ I remember both Mr. and Mrs. Richardson when my father did their taxes. Also I met them when they provided a scholarship for my son.

They set a good example. Both were very fine people and they are now walking with the Lord.

God be with the family.

“ I followed Ruthie around like a puppy dog when I was a kid, went through the courtship of her and Kenny, went with her to look at the first place they lived, I loved her so much I told her everything that I knew of that she was getting for her wedding shower, before the shower, many fond memories Barb Abrams
