“ I've known SI through IUF for 20 yrs, and she meant so much to me. Hard to believe she's gone. She was one of those rare people who shine from within. So happy & bubbly & ready for fun. She was always willing to go the extra mile (or three or four!) to help donors & friends. Borrowing her line--"she was a doozy!" (Never figured out what that meant exactly, but it was a compliment.)

I will miss hearing about her latest adventures & updates on Greg & Jeff. (Boy was she proud of them!) I will miss hearing "Fiddle Dee Dee" and "worry about that later" and so many things. I will miss our lunch bunch dates & Price Is Right event. Mostly, I'm thankful that she's reunited w/ her parents and Debbie Narey. Someday I will see these beautiful ladies again.

“ Sending Condolences To the family of Sandy Inman: I am so sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful person, a close, dear friend of my sister, Joy Richarddon. They travelled and shared many fun times together. Joy always had wonderful things to say about your mother. God bless you and may those fond memories of your Mother comfort you during this sad time.

“ The picture of Sandy captures well the helpful energy she always projected at IUF. She was a rock for the Well House Society and touched many, many donors with her knowledge of the university and assistance in helping them connect with the people and events which kept them loyal alumni and friends.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Sandy's passing. I had the great pleasure of working with her for several years. What a wonderful colleague, mentor, and friend! Sandy was always there, taking care of whatever was needed at the drop of a hat. One of the many things she was great at was making her famous sausage balls for birthday gatherings. She will be missed by many, but we will all have nothing but happy memories of this wonderful, beautiful lady!

“ Sandy and I were cousins and good friends. We rode tricycles on the sidewalk as toddlers (?) on East Main St. in Bloomfield, we cut paper dolls, as teenagers we went skating in Bedford and Bloomfield, and have kept in touch through the years. We talked on the phone several times making plans to see each other at the Solsberry reunion. She told me about her new puppy, and recently visited with her aunt Wilma. I will miss her. Joyce
